

Washtenaw County Bar Association Bar Revue/Silent Auction Committee 2006/2007

Inaugural Meeting (10/6/06) Minutes

Present: Greg Dodd, Frank Weir, Carol Weisensel, Erane Washington, Peter Falkenstein, Veronique Liem, Ashwin Patel, Margaret Krasnow, Judy Van Amberg, Kyeena Slater (did I forget anyone?)

New Business:

- Greg recorded last year's Bar Revue 1.25 hour show on VHS and has made it available at the WCBA office for viewing. The group supports Greg's idea of recording the show in DVD format for sale or for donation to the Silent Auction.
- Erane was appointed Task Master to keep this group on track.
- Carol volunteered to be the Scribe for this group.
- Many creative ideas for this year's Bar Revue program, its programming and the directing were shared and discussed, including suggestions for such themes as (a) "WCBA Goes to the Movies," (b) another mock trial; and (c) mock Academy Awards.
- Actual movie scenes, imaginative movie scenes [here you go Pete: Grizzly Man being attacked by a poodle during a walk in the Arb], and categories of awards were tossed around and mulled over by the group.
- A Lifetime Achievement award and who should be the recipient was discussed.
- December is targeted as the month for firmly deciding on the content of the Bar Revue program.
- Frank was going to check to see if Jeff Daniels would be available to participate in the Bar Revue program.
- Silent Auction:
 - Erica, Reid, and Ashwin are co-chairing the Silent Auction Committee
 - Based on last year's experience, it has been affirmed that the Silent Auction close out bidding must be staggered to accommodate the payments and distribution.
- Participants are urged to bring ideas to the next meeting
- Next meeting date/time to be determined.

The End. CW
