

WCBA TODAY—
THE TV SHOW

Live broadcast
April 7, 2005
Our all-new 24/7
Cable News Network
Mark your calendar now!

WCBA
TODAY

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S NOT FIT TO PRINT

ELVIS WAS DRIVING
PRINCESS DI'S
DEATH CAR —

WCBA TODAY is first on the scene—exclusive photos inside, page 95

FRIDAY, February 18, 2005

NEWSLINE

A QUICK READ ON THE NEWS

CRIMINAL TRIAL FASHIONS:

ATTORNEY MULLKOFF: Dressing for success

Attorney Doug Mullkoff speaks to the Washtenaw Criminal Defense Lawyers on "Dressing Your Client for Trial—Show the Jury what Innocence Looks Like." Michael Jackson will be his example. Page 67.

CRACKING FORT WASHTENAW:

How to get past WCSD Security with your shoes on.

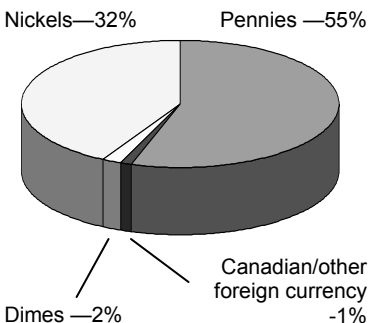

BINGO NIGHT AT THE HOGBACK HILTON:

Possible fundraiser if millage fails. Page 23.

WCBA SNAPSHOTS

Statistics that shape the news

Coins picked up by Brian Mackie

Source: Shakey Jake

This year's WCBA Bar Revue Show will be:

WCBA TODAY, THE TV SHOW

- Broadcast LIVE on Thursday, April 7, 2005
- Cocktails & silent auction 5:30 to 6:30 P.M.
- Buffet dinner at 6:30 P.M.
- Live broadcast begins 7:00 P.M.
- Weber's Inn Grand Ballroom, Ann Arbor
- Silent Auction to benefit Legal Services of South Central Michigan
- News, Sports, Entertainment, Weather
- Celebrity cameos, Commentary on Current Events
- YOU CAN BE IN OUR STUDIO AUDIENCE!

CENSORS CRACK DOWN ON WCBA BAR REVUE SHOW

ANN ARBOR (UPI) - State Auditors have subpoenaed WCBA records and are considering possible censorship of the upcoming annual WCBA Bar Revue Show. Apparently, past shows including performances by JoAnne Barron and Mary Schieve have prompted anonymous reports to the Ethics Police in Lansing. Authorities in Lansing have confirmed that they are watching closely the planning for this year's show, scheduled for Thursday, April 7, 2005 at Weber's Inn. Will the censors get away with it? Tune in!